Mars within 30 degrees of the lunar node in 2025, a countdown to doomsday and the reign of Armaaruss, Mars 360, and the Mars Redback currency system

With everything happening as of now in 2024, the stage is set for the planet Mars being within 30 degrees of the lunar node in 2025 between June 5th and September 4th to be the cosmic sign that brings down the current world order as we know it and sets the stage for the mark of the beast and the adoration of Armaaruss to take shape in the west and beyond. In 2024, the ongoing war against Israel involving regional actors such as Hezbollah and the IRGC, the internal crisis within the United States, and the war in Ukraine which is on the brink of a nuclear catastrophe, creates the conditions for the alignment of Mars within 30 degrees of the lunar node in 2025 to be the worst period that humanity has ever experienced, but one that will finally compel people to seek after other gods and doctrines, namely Armaaruss and the Mars 360 Religious and Social system, both of which are embedded into the Mars Redback currency system, a global financial system by which the Mars Redback becomes the global reserve currency where transactions signify an oath of allegiance to the primordial god of war, Armaaruss.

For those who are not familiar with the significance of Mars within 30 degrees of the lunar node, it is a planetary alignment that has been observed as a celestial warning for Israel and the world, with its most ominous effect culminating in the events of October 7th 2023, when Israel experienced the worst attack on its soil since its inception as a nation in 1948. 1400 Israeli civilians were salughtered in masse via gunfire, artillery and rocket attacks carried out from Gaza and Lebanon. Relative to population size, the scale of the attack would have been the equivalent of 40,000 people being killed in a single terrorist attack in the United States. My real-time prediction and warning of this event constitutes a major eschatological sign involving calling down fire from heaven. During the years leading up to October 7th 2023, warnings were given about this celestial alignment of Mars and the lunar node being a harbinger of terror against Israel. The October 7th attack confirmed it.

In retrospect, the alignment of Mars within 30 degrees of the lunar node was discovered via my ruminations and writings about the number 666, an encrypted key from the book of Revelation—if deciphered—would unlock the identity of the lawless primordial Satanic force said to have existed throughout antiquity. After much deliberation, I concluded that 666 should stand for Mars 360. I rationalized this by using English Sumerian gematria by which the letters of the alphabet are numbered in multiples of six. For instance, with this system, A=6, B=12, C=18, D=24, etc, etc. If you add up the letters in the word “Mars” using this method, the sum would come out to 306. If you add 360, which implies a revolution or orbit, the sum would equal 666. This revelation did not arise out of the blue. In fact, even before I tied Mars to the number 666, back when I was in deep study of astrology, I had already surmised the planet Mars to exert a negative influence on human behavior and even developed a preliminary vision of what would later become the mark of the beast system.

By fitting my prognostications of Mars into an eschatalogical framework by tieing it to 666, I then sought patterns that would integrate Israel to that mold, since Israel is the central theme of Abrahamic lore. After unlocking 666 to mean Mars 360, I then discovered that Mars was influencing the enemies of Israel to carry out its highest concentration of rocket fire during the time of the alignment between Mars and the lunar node compared to the rest of the year. When it comes to rocket fire from Gaza, this pattern goes back to 2005 and holds true even as of 2024. I have also surmised that the closer the degree between Mars and the lunar node, the greater the intensity of attacks against Israel. Also interesting to note–in terms of why Mars is implicated as a major influence against Israel—is that in Talmudic literature, Samael, the king of all demons, is considered to be the archenemy of the Jewish people and according to this tradition, Samael is associated with Mars. So even in Jewish tradition, we have a justification for Mars being a direct celestial warning for the inhabitants of Israel.

After discovering this, I found other events from around the world that coincided with this same alignment. The similarities are striking. In three different countries—the US, England, and France, the greatest attack on their soil happened when Mars and the lunar node were in similar close alignment as that of October 7th 2023. On the day of the September 11, 2001 attacks on the World Trade Center in New York, Mars was in very close alignment with the lunar node, within 2 degrees. This was the same for terrorist attacks in England and France. The worst attack on England's soil took place on July 7, 2005, and during this event of which scores of Londoners were killed, Mars was within 1-2 degrees of the lunar node. The worst attack on France's soil took place on November 13, 2015, when over 100 people were slaughtered by terrorists. This also occurred when Mars was in very close alignment with the lunar node, within 1-2 degrees in fact.

Not only does Mars influence human behavior at the geopolitical level, it also influences behavior at the financial level. Three of the most significant stock market crashes occurred when Mars was in close alignment with the lunar node. The 1929 stock market crash, the 1987 stock market crash, and the 2020 stock market crash occurred when Mars was within close alignment of the lunar node, within 3-4 degrees in each case. During the 2008-2009 crash, the low of the crash occurred when Mars was within 30 degrees of the lunar node in early 2009.

Mars also influences human behavior at the individual level, influencing humans to certain various fundamental dispositions that are all of a negative quality but united in that they are influenced by one source—Mars. An entire social system called "Mars 360" has been created from this perspective and is the basis of the new Mars Redback currency system that will replace the US Dollar and the United States Constitution.

Since 2019, throughout the time that I prophesied, a number of major catastrophes have occurred—the global COVID-19 pandemic that killed millions of people, the war between Russia and Ukraine, the rising social problems and inflation in the US, the multinational attack against Israel, and many others. In being accurate in predicting the attacks against Israel, I have tried to articulate a message of compromise by which all these calamites may abate if the world would make consession to this adversarial force of Mars, namely by making an image of this primordial force that I have named "Armaaruss." It was also advised that people adhere to the Mars 360 Religious and Social system by which everyone would renounce their nationality and identify with a cosmic identity assigned to them, one based on Mars influence on their personality. As of now, no one has heeded this message.

So now fire from heaven in 2025 will affect the US Stock Market. The value and initial offering of the Mars Redback is based on a major financial collapse happening when Mars is within 30 degrees of the lunar node. For relevant context, read this entire paper as to how the new financial system will become globalized https://www.academia.edu/123585219

When calamity strikes the financial markets between June 5th 2025 and September 4th 2025 when Mars is within 30 degrees of the lunar node, the value of the Mars Redback will rise and become available for public procurement. Then it will be declared that the Mars Redback currency is to be designated as the official legal tender in the United States, capable of settling public and private debt. The US Constitution will be suspended and the oath of all federal emplyees, public servants and military to defend the Constitution will be transitioned into an oath to defend Mars 360. From this point, an edict will go out to all hospitals in the US that all newborns are to have their birthtimes recorded and their astrology charts calculated. The position of Mars thereof will determine their primary idenity as either a Mars-1, Mars-2, Mars-3, Mars-4, Mars-5, or Mars-6. Every US citizen will then be given a timetable to come into compliance with this Mars 360 religious and social system and identify themselves appropriately by placing their primary Mars identifier either on the right hand or forehead, or else be disbarred from engaging in commerce. From there, all aid to America's allies will become contingent upon their coming into compliance with the Mars 360 religious and social system and setting up a statue of Armaaruss in their respective holy places, such as the Temple Mount, the Vatican, and various other cathedrals throughout the west and beyond. Failure to do so will result in the cessation of military and financial aid. Other religions would be allowed to continue to practice their faith as long as they are integrated into Mars 360.

Once the west and its allies are consolidated into one world government, the rest of the world will be ordered to come into compliance with Mars 360 until the complete one world government is achieved.
